A decision may be made at the next board meeting. It was brought to our attention that there is mixed reviews about the Iron Mind program. Larry Hinkle and Wendy Shipman shared email messages they received from coaches as to whether they felt the program benefited the various sports. There is mixed feelings. Discussion was held wondering if we should continue the program or not. We have paid for the winter season, but will re-evaluate if we want to continue with the Spring session. We are to see if he will work more with the teams that want him, since not all teams care to use his services. Larry Hinkle suggested having an evaluation of his services right after each season. He also mentioned that if we end up deciding to do away with the program, maybe put money towards summer camps instead. Jerry Goodenough had checked with Ithaca College to see if they had students that could help Aaron from Iron Mind. Seniors do need to put hours in, but they would need |        |

|  | Committee Reports |   |  |
|  | Concessions              | The stand will be open for two scrimmages being held in the next week.They have purchased LED lights to put up around the stand, to draw attention to the fact it is open, and would like to put up sports teams pictures, too (Larry said he has some that can be used).     |  |
|  | Fundraising              | Online store: Jerry will check with Diedra on the status of this. (It was suggested to try to sell items at the concession stand, too).Dance: this is still scheduled for March.  |  |
|  | Membership               | Wendy has re-done the membership application, and would also like to do a "challenge" for sports teams to see who can get the most new members with a prize going to the winning team. Membership fees will be $15 for family, business, or grandparent; $10 for an individual. |  |
